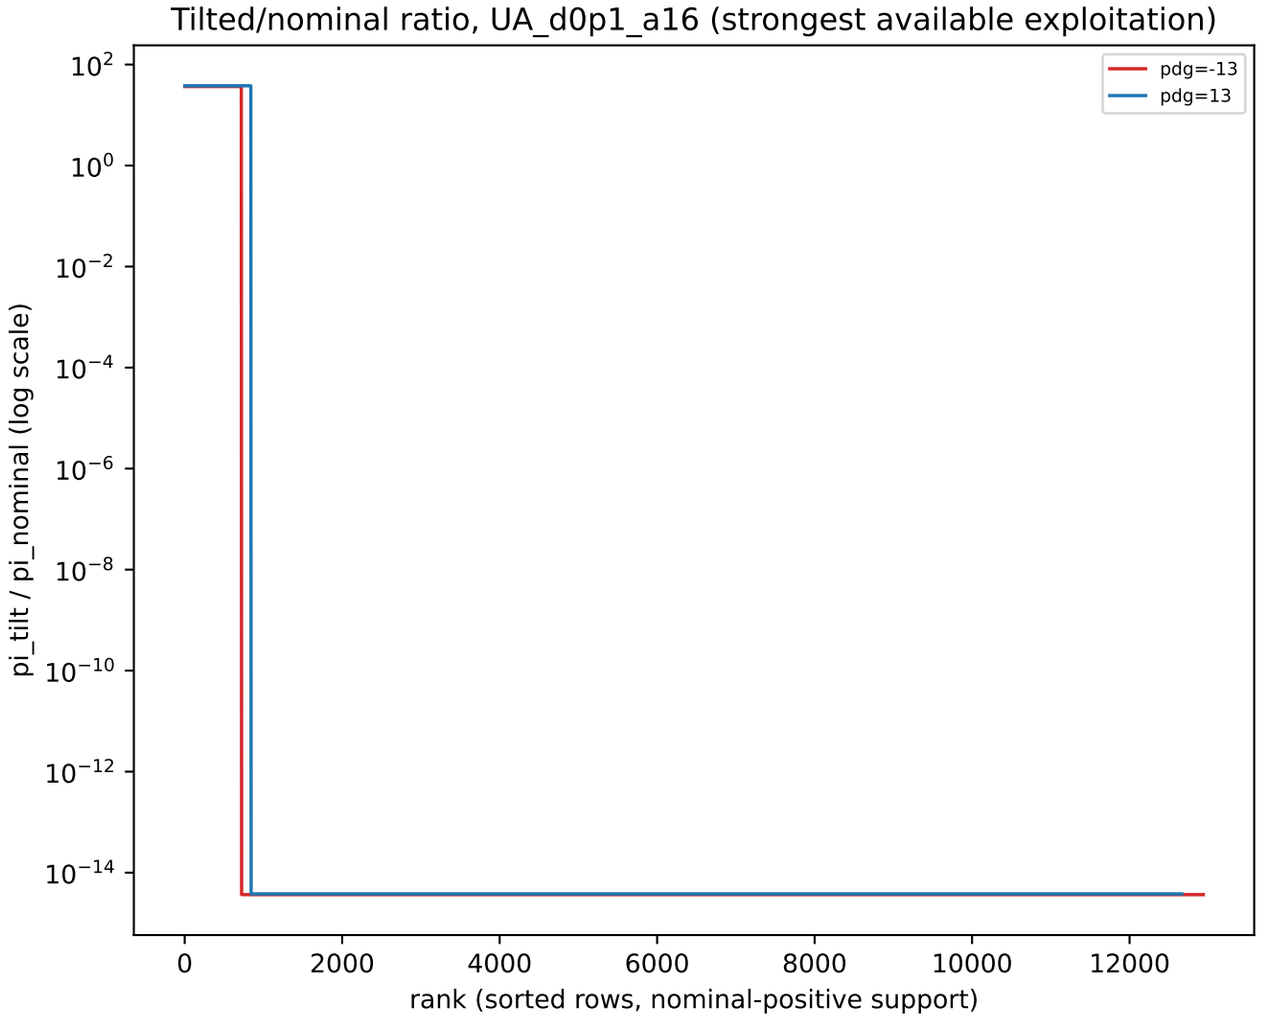
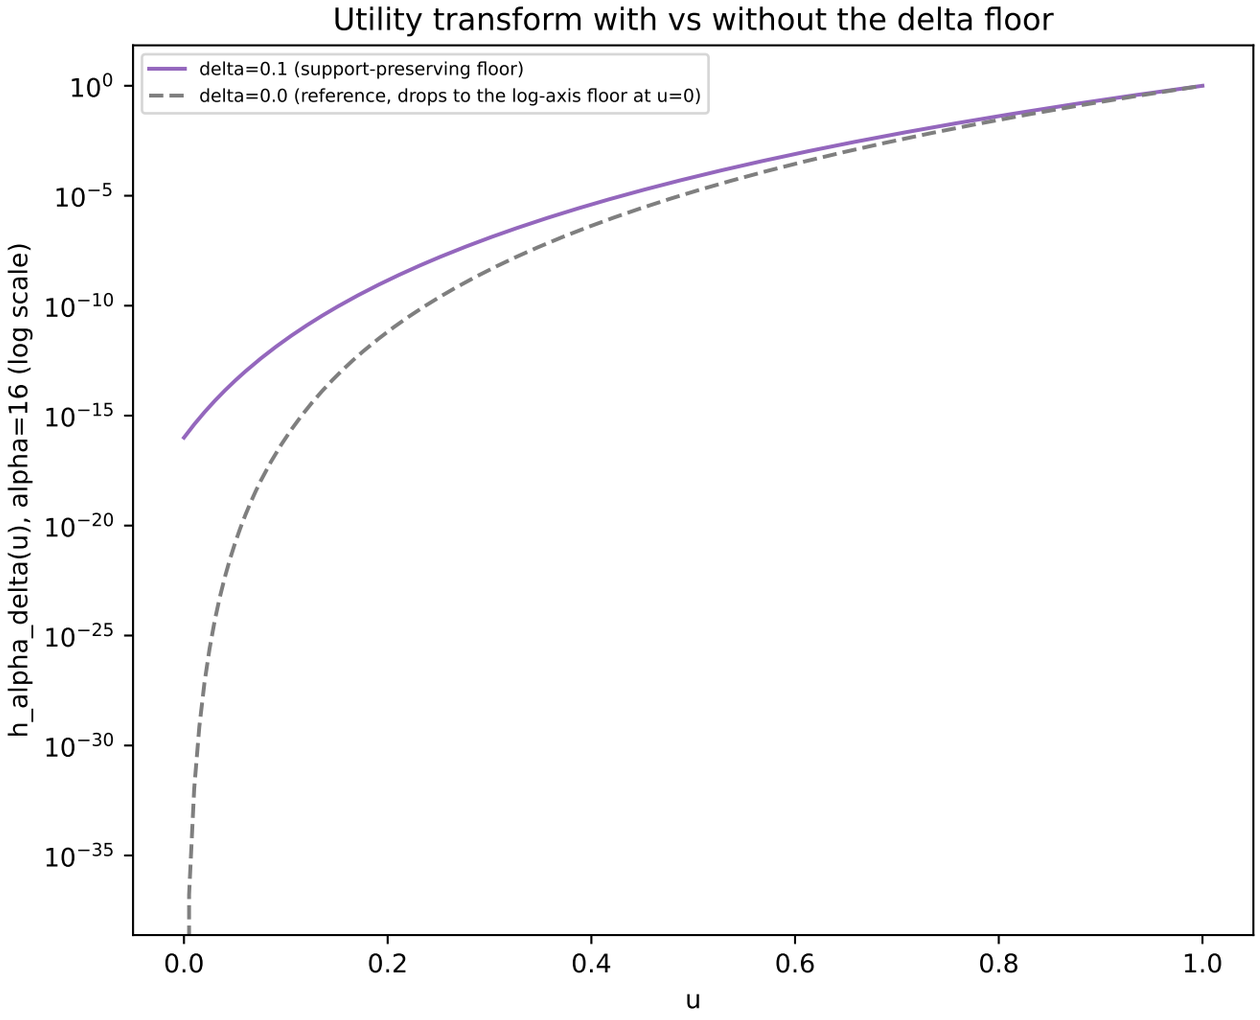
Why delta>0: strictly positive, finite tilted/nominal ratio (synthetic B_toy, not a FairShip result)





Support preservation is relative to the finite empirical nominal population. It does not prove that the available dataset covers all physically relevant SHiP regions.